Awards, Ratings & Reviews:

93 points, Paul Gregutt

The nose jumps out with gloriously dusty scents of brambly berries and pastry cherries. The cooperage, though neutral, has added just enough barrel spice to complement the fruit. Though Malbec has not been the varietal wine that has made Abacela's reputation, it could certainly be the next groundbreaking success if this is the new standard.

TASTING NOTES

This complex full-bodied wine was assembled from our best barrels of Malbec. Aromas of blackberries, chocolate, oak and dried lavender meld with broad tannins and an earthy spice to create both tension and balance in this structured wine.
